IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO. 2316 OF 2006

Ansari Zahir Ahmed ..Petitioner

versus

University of Mumbai & Ors. ..Respondents

Ms. Daksha M. Shah for the Petitioner.

Mr. R. Rordiques for the Respondents - University.

CORAM : D. G. DESHPANDE, &
SMT. NISHITA MHATRE, JJ.

DATE : 25TH APRIL, 2007.

P.C.

1. Heard counsel for the petitioner and respondents - University.

2. It is the grievance of the petitioner that the result of PHD for which the petitioner has appeared or submitted a thesis was not declared in time and there was an inordinate delay in that regard, as a result, the petitioner has lost his two valuable years of career.

3. Counsel for the University tenders a letter dated 3.8.2005, the same is taken on record and marked 'X' for identification. From the explanation given in this letter dated 3.8.2005, it is clear that declaring result of PhD is dependent upon the submission of Adjudication Report of the Internal Examiner as well as External Examiner and within 45 days of the receipt of that report, result has to be declared and now according to counsel for the University the petitioner has become eligible to enroll himself for PhD. If this is so, we accept the statement of the counsel for the University, that the petitioner is eligible to enroll himself as PHD as per the Rules of the University. With these observations, the petition is disposed of.
